MODERN SCRIPTURE.

Irreverent Satire of an Unregenerate Journalist.

(Philadelphia Bulletin.)

The contrast between the condition of things when Mammon was persecuting the church and when Mammon is holding a pew and helping to pay for the choir, would be rather startling. Even more interesting would be an attempt to conceive the present condition of things as existing in the Apostolic age. Suppose, for example, that such a record should contain information like the following: Peter went to Joppa to carry the Gospel to Cornelius, but upon arriving at his destination, he discovered that he had accidentally left all his sermons behind him at Jerusalem, and as he did not know how to speak extemporaneously, he was obliged to postpone the intended Sunday service until he could send and fetch his manuscripts. The brother of Onesimus came to hear Paul preach, but as he was a person of very humble birth, and all the pews upon the ground floor were rented by wealthy people, he was shown to a back seat in the gallery. The church edifice at Antioch cost $375,000; two-thirds of which remained as a mortgage upon the building. The brethren strove earnestly to reduce the debt, and with this intent they held a fair, at which pin-cushions and ice-cream were sold, and during which there was much excitement over a raffle for a cake. The gold-headed cane, which was offered to whichever clergyman obtained the greatest number of votes, was awarded to Paul, who had 381 votes, while only 270 were given to Peter, and 111 scattering. The attempt to raise the money having, however, failed, the edifice was sold by the sheriff, and was purchased by a Roman, who fitted it up for a circus. Apollos, having been attacked by a light form of bronchitis, went to Malta for the benefit of his health, and the church to which he ministered was closed all summer, repairs being conducted in the interval. Philip, having for many years performed pastoral duties faithfully in a parish of Ethiopia, a number of members of the congregation grew tired of him, and they cut down his salary to get rid of him. When he resigned, a younger man was called, and as nobody extended a call to Philip, he was admitted to the home for decayed clergymen, where he ended his days. Paul preached at Corinth with power and fervor, and at the conclusion of his sermon he asked that a hymn should be sung. It was given in an artistic manner by the choir, the action for the soprano and alto being unusually brilliant, while Paul was especially pleased with the extraordinary left-hand playing of the organist during the performance of the florid accompaniment. A Gentile from Alexandria, who attempted to sing, was requested by the sexton not to interrupt the music. When Paul visited Ephesus, he was entertained by Alexander, the copper-smith, who, although not a believer, held a pew in the middle aisle of the church, belonging to the vestry, and contributed so liberally to the church objects that he was more highly regarded than any of the converts whose circumstances were not so good. Paul, while in the pulpit, preached with force against sin; but, of course, carefully avoided saying anything that might hurt Alexander's feelings. While at Lystra, Paul encountered a cripple who had been robbed of the use of his limbs by rheumatism. He advised the unfortunate man to read carefully the patent medicine advertisements in the religious newspapers in the hope of being directed toward relief.

Scene at a Wedding.

There was an affecting and dramatic scene at a wedding among colored people at Petersburg, when two brothers whom slavery had divided were suddenly brought together after a long separation. They had been born in Maryland, and the planter whose property they were, becoming embarrassed in business, was obliged to part with some of his slaves, and the two boys were among those whom he sold. One of them was taken to Texas and the other to Virginia. They had grown up men before the war came and never expected to see each other. After emancipation they both went North and engaged in business but never met. Each supposed the other dead. To this wedding went many colored people from the South and West, and among them the brothers. As they appeared to be strangers, someone introduced them. Before the day was over they discovered their relationship, and each had told the story of his life.

Graded Salaries.

The Stockton board of education has resolved that salaries in the public schools of that city shall be proportionate to the experience of the teachers, as follows: For one year, or less, $500 per year; for two, and more than one, $600; for three, and more than two, $700; for four years, full salary.

The Battle Mountain Messenger says the Eagle company have reduced the wages of the miners from $4 to $3 50 per day, which caused some stir in the camp, and in consequence the whole force quit work, held meetings, passed resolutions censuring the action of the company. Other men were used for and are now at work.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The scarcity of diamonds, gold and silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value. Thus it is with a valuable medicine: Dr. Aug. Kaiser's celebrated German Pulmonic Balm, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom, or put out a prairie fire with a tear. For the cure of Throat and Lung diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Bronchial Affections it is unequalled. Its cures are truly magical. Ask your druggists, OAKBURN & SHOEMAKER, for it. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75-cent bottle. Trial bottle, 25 cents. auth'd

To All Whom It May Concern.

This is to certify that I, L. E. Friedman, do this 14th day of January, 1879, bargain and sell my shop with appurtenances thereto belonging, and with title, interest and good will of the same, to Charles M. Kinn. This shop will hereafter close on Saturdays; however, it will be opened every Saturday evening. My many patrons will confer upon me a special favor by accommodating themselves to this change, for the benefit of my successor. L. E. FRIEDMAN.

I certify that the above is done in good faith and also that the prices of the shop will remain for the present, as recently reduced. A first-class shop and good work guaranteed to all. CHARLES M. KINN.

NABOB WHISKEY.

Consumers are referred to the following extract from the report of an eminent Public Analyst:

This is a pure barley and wheat spirit, remarkable in fragrance, which imparts a delicate aroma, at the same time greatly increasing its value as a diffusive stimulant. The solid residue contains a large amount of tannin, derived from storing in oak casks, which imparts to fine old whiskey one of its valuable individual qualities. The amount of the residue proves the whiskey to be free from the excessive coloring and sweetening so generally used in adulterating. In fact, in two words, it is the FINEST WHISKY, and will not only supply a public want, but that whiskey is so generally adulterated, but will be of the greatest value to the physician in those numerous cases where pure whiskey is the most useful of all medicines. ## OUR WATER RIGHTS.

It seems to us that the people of Reno who patronize the Reno Water Company generously during the summer months ought to have some rights guaranteed to them against the approach of winter. This property, which was only two years ago sold for a small sum, has recently changed hands for a consideration of $13,500. If the owner desires to supply the people of Reno he would do well to perfect his arrangements accordingly. If this be a matter of indifference, then our citizens should take measures immediately to supply themselves.

Last summer we paid a large sum to this water company. We have in return, been left without accommodation when we needed it most. The money which we paid into this company in one year would secure to us the needed conveniences at all times. The citizens of Reno should steadfastly refuse to patronize this company unless the winter supply is guaranteed. Lectures are cheap on this subject, but if you will touch the purse of the company a radical reform will be secured. Suit yourselves.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

This is what Adolph Sutro said to a reporter of the Silver State:

I have no idea of severing my connection with the tunnel, though some of the mine managers, particularly those connected with the Virginia and Truckee railroad, would, no doubt, be very much pleased to have me do so. He is of the opinion that some of the mining companies will not willingly consent to paying him for draining their mines until outsiders refuse to pay assessments for pumping water two thousand feet to the surface. When stockholders positively refuse to pay hundreds of thousands of dollars annually to raise water, then those who control the mines will gladly avail themselves of the facilities afforded by the Sutro tunnel to drain the Comstock mines. That time has about arrived, and he intends to have the tunnel in a condition to accommodate them all when they are ready to pay for its use.

An exchange notes that a very important movement has been made towards the abolition of polygamy. The Argus-eyed sees this in a late agreement of the senate judiciary committee. Tom Jefferson et al made a similar move in a document called the constitution several months ago, but polygamy has seemed to make headway notwithstanding.

Governor Kinkaid has ordered a special election on the 4th of next March, in Lincoln county, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Assemblyman Wash. As the legislative session will close about that time the Times-Review falls to discover the utility of such proceeding.

Unless we mistake the law, the Governor is plainly commanded to proceed as he has done.

Colonel Bee says Webster teaches that the influx of the Chinese is not an invasion. The great lexicographer says in his dictionary that to infringe or encroach on is to invade. Do not the Chinese infringe or encroach on the Caucasians in this state by driving them out of employment? Colonel Bee is a success when he defends the moon-eyed leper. There are more competent men, however, who will defend the English language.

The press is fairly united in favor of Assemblyman Taylor's bill to exempt a certain amount of printing material from attachment. The exemption is contained in favor of all other occupations and we see no reason why the press should be excluded from its benefits. This is the principle for which Col. Shaw is fighting in San Francisco. We hope some just exemption may be granted by the present legislature.

Edward Malin, the absconder from Drexler & Co., has been sentenced to three years hard labor. The sentence is very severe. You will say the crime was severe too. Never mind. You should remember the worry and expense following its commission. Also the difference between crime and punishment in this country. Selah.

The trustees of the Carson race-track have instructed Mr. Treasurer Coffin to collect all subscriptions, by mail if necessary. Carson hopes to be able to have a stake fair next season of a successful character.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Gold is a glut in Omaha, and bankers complain that they cannot get rid of it—people preferring currency.

A large meeting of socialists was held in New York on the 22d, presided over by John Swinton. Resolutions were adopted declaring Bismarck to be an enemy of the human race.

In the fourth game of the billiard tournament in New York on the 22d, Gallagher defeated Garner—600 to 589. Slosson beat Saxton in twelve innings by a score of 600 to 87. Slosson ran 441 in the eighth inning. Slosson's run is the highest on record and wipes out Schaeffer's great run of 429, and Sexton's old 417.

In Jacksonville, Florida, on the 22d, the jury in the case of the Brevard county canvassing board, for making a false return of the late congressional election, brought in a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy.

It is announced that the Astrachan epidemic has terminated. The official reports regarding the plague have been throughout untrustworthy.

The Eccles cotton mills at Ashton, England, running 2000 spindles, was burned on the 22d. One hundred and thirty persons are thrown out of employment. Loss, $30,000.

A Los Angeles telegram of the 22d says that ex-City Tax Collector Carrillo has been re-arrested, subsequent investigations having shown that the defalcation, so far as discovered, amounts to $17,137—an increase of $5450 over the amount first reported. His bail was increased to $10,000. Suit was commenced against his bondsmen, and attachments were levied on their property to-day.

MRS. H. A. MOORE'S
SCIENTIFIC HAIR PRODUCER.

Mrs. H. A. Moore would announce to the ladies and gentlemen who desire the personal adornment of a fine suit of hair, that she has patented her celebrated Hair Restorer, which has now been before the public for a space of two years, and has in every instance given entire satisfaction as to what it promises. No mineral or damaging substance is used in this preparation, and it is guaranteed to prevent hair falling out after four applications. Well-known cases of long standing baldness have been successfully treated (as per testimonials in my possession). It will produce a full flowing crop of hair, at all stages of baldness, even to its most pronounced state. It will prevent hair from turning gray.

Preparations forwarded to all parts of the country.

AN INVARIABLE
Hair Restorer,
which will restore the
grayest hair to its natural color, remove dandruff, and prevent or stop the hair from falling out. It is clean and investigating, making the hair healthy and
growing in all instances.
It reproduces the hair
to bald heads when the roots of the hair are (however feeble) left.
I warrant this Hair Restorative to be real, and to do all that is claimed for it. It is not a new article, but has been in the market since 1868. All those having this article for sale, and those who use it, pronounce it the best in the market. Examine carefully before buying, to avoid deception. Prepared and for sale by
